Congratulations to Home Decoration magazine. Your team has admirably seized the day and captured the spirit of China's emerging love affair with international interior design. It has both interesting local diversity and global curiosity — very important ingredients in a shelter magazine.

I have been working with more than 6 magazines in China this year and I can say that HOME DECORATION is one of my favorites ! I like how the magazine shows different homes along the world, knowing how to mix the different styles of houses in the magazine that make to the reader a very interesting magazine.

Our world is changing increasingly faster, what was new last year or the year before is now old news! This being said one would have thought that, as a counterpoint to this mad world, interior design would favor classic and reassuringly comfortable styles but it is absolutely not the case. Strangely our world seems to bear in equal amounts huge hopes and huge fears, we have the weapons and means to build a better, more generous world.

I love New Years celebrations! All over the world people stop, have parties, drink champagne and wish for a better future. And in times like these where there is so much fighting in the world, I wish for 2011 : peace to all countries. In times of peace, people can create beauty and art is made. In times of peace, people are free to design and think large. Happy New Year's to you all!

Home Design Magazine has been teaching readers the essential tips that we as professionals know and apply in every project. I am very proud of being a part of this incredible team that focuses so hard on its readers and show them by just flipping its pages to understand the very basic secrets of design and the big difference between a House and a Home.
